▪ L A W R E V I E W ▪

In 1968, the Columbia Human Rights Law Review became the first law school journal devoted to the subject of human rights. Twenty-seven years later, the Review continues to be a primary source for the discussion and analysis of domestic and international human rights issues of topical importance. Published three times a year, the Review contains articles written by scholars, activists and students.

Our authors have included Abdullahi Ahmed An-Na'im, Rebecca J. Cook, Rhonda Copelon, Marian Wright Edelman, Marvin E. Frankel, Vernon E. Jordan, Jr., Arthur C. Helton, Louis Henkin, Michael Posner and the Bishop Desmond Tutu.

Human Rights Quarterly

A Comparative and International Journal of the Social Sciences, Humanities, and Law

Bert B. Lockwood, Jr., Editor, Urban Morgan Institute for Human Rights, University of Cincinnati College of Law

Now in its 17th year, Human Rights Quarterly is widely recognized as the leader in the field of human rights. Drawing upon experts from around the world and from a range of disciplines, each article is edited to be understood by the intelligent reader. The Quarterly provides up-to-date information on the important developments within the United Nations and regional human rights organizations, both government and non-governmental. It presents current work in human rights research and policy analysis, reviews of related books, and philosophical essays probing the fundamental nature of human rights as defined by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. By providing decision makers with insight into complex human rights issues, the Quarterly helps to define national and international human rights policy. Published quarterly in February, May, August, and November.

Volume 17, Number 1 includes: China and the International Human Rights Regime • Conceptual Problems in the Protection of Minorities • How the International System Copes with Involuntary Migration • The South African Constitution of 1993 and the Bill of Rights • Women's Voices, Women's Pain • Social Economic Rights and Human Rights Commissions • More Murder in the Middle • The Mohonk Criteria for Humanitarian Assistance in Complex Emergencies
