2ND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON
HEALTH & HUMAN RIGHTS

October 3-5, 1996

Harvard University
Cambridge, Massachusetts, USA

The field of health and human rights is rapidly expanding, presenting new challenges and new opportunities. Join those working at the forefront of health and human rights in exchanging experience and knowledge; strengthening collaboration in education, research, communication and advocacy; identifying and discussing major and emerging issues; advancing interdisciplinary understanding of the field; and promoting solidarity and dialogue among people working in health and human rights. The conference features plenaries, field reports, roundtables and skills-building sessions, as well as networking and materials exchange opportunities.

REGISTRATION FEE:

Regular: $225 On-Site: $265 Student: $75
