The François-Xavier Bagnoud Center For Health and Human Rights Presents

HUMAN RIGHTS AND HEALTH: A New Perspective in Public Health

June 10–13, 1997

CORE FACULTY

JONATHAN M. MANN, MD, MPH

SOFIA GRUSKIN, JD, MIA

This course explores the fundamental and newly recognized linkage between health and human rights. Through case discussions, lectures and problem-solving exercises, the course introduces participants to the field of human rights (documents, concepts, practices) and enables them to apply the human rights framework to the challenges of health promotion and disease prevention. This course provides the concepts and tools required to satisfy both public health goals and human rights norms.
