ABOUT THE JOURNAL

Health and Human Rights began publication in 1994 under the editorship of Jonathan Mann, who was succeeded in 1997 by Sofia Gruskin. Paul Farmer, co-founder of Partners In Health, assumed the editorship in 2007. A leading forum of debate on global health and rights concerns, Health and Human Rights moved to an open access online publication with Volume 10, Number 1, in 2008. The journal maintains a tradition of critical scholarship and also provides an inclusive forum for action-oriented dialogue among human rights practitioners, with peer-reviewed articles focusing rigorous scholarly analysis on the conceptual foundations and challenges of rights discourse and action in relation to health.

Health and Human Rights is listed in PubMed, the database of the National Library of Medicine.

PUBLICATION POLICY

Health and Human Rights welcomes unsolicited manuscripts. Submissions to the Journal should not exceed 7,000 words. Submissions to the Perspectives section should be between 500 and 2000 words. Book reviews and Letters to the Editor are also welcome. More information on submissions is available at <http://www.hhrjournal.org/submissions.php>.

Please submit manuscripts through the journal's online submission process or by email to hhrjournal@hsph.harvard.edu. Author guidelines are available on the Health and Human Rights website (<http://www.hhrjournal.org>). Views expressed in the journal are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Health and Human Rights publisher, editors, editorial board members, or other members.

COPYRIGHT POLICY

Health and Human Rights applies the Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial 3.0 Unported License to all articles, with the philosophy that there should be no financial barriers to access information. The Attribution-Noncommercial license (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/3.0/>) lets people freely copy, distribute, remix, and build upon contributors' work, provided it is not used to make a profit and the original authors and Health and Human Rights are appropriately acknowledged. These conditions can be waived if author, as copyright holder, grants potential users explicit permission. Copyrighted material may be included in articles provided authors provide proof of written permission for such use from the copyright holder.
